

AMERICAN WHO CARRIED LETTER LOST PASSPORT

SECRETARY LANSING CANCELS
PAPERS OF JAMES ARCHBALD,
NOW IN ROTTERDAM.

BELIEVE DUMBA MUST GO

Washington Officials Think Austro-Hungarian Minister Will Be Sent Home.

(Associated Press)

Washington, Sept. 9.—Secretary of State Lansing has cancelled the passports of James Archbald, the American correspondent on whom the British secret service operatives found the communication from Constantinople, Dumba, Austro-Hungarian ambassador, to his government; on the subject of fomenting strikes in American munition factories.

To Return To U. S.

Archbald is now at Rotterdam and he will be given an emergency passport to the United States, where the Department of Justice will decide what further action, if any, shall be taken in his case.

Awaiting Evidence

The case of Ambassador Dumba will not be decided until more documentary evidence is received from London.

Washington, Sept. 9.—That Dr. Constantine Dumba is near the end of his tenure as Austrian ambassador to the United States is the belief in Washington. It is thought Austria will be asked quietly and unofficially to send a new ambassador in consequence of Dumba's efforts to tie up munition plants in America.

This view is based on two significant developments:

President Wilson's disregard of precedent to visit the state department for a discussion of the case with Secretary Lansing.

The labor department's reported refusal to help the envoy notify Austrians and Hungarians that they violate their own country's laws if they work in American plants that make war supplies for the allies.

Wilson Awaits More Facts.

It was learned that Dumba's explanation and defense of his letter, sent through James P. J. Archbald to his foreign office, but seized in England, suggested that Austrian subjects be called out of American war materials plants did not close the incident. The president is reported to

GETTING READY FOR LEE COUNTY'S FAIR

FAIR GROUNDS AT AMBOY ARE BUSY—EVERYTHING IS PAINTED WHITE

The past few days have been busy ones at the Lee County Fair grounds at Amboy. A force of men have been at work putting the grounds, buildings, track, etc., in shape for the opening of what (with fair weather) will be the greatest fair Lee County has ever seen. That is a big statement but we have the word of "Billie" Leech, the energetic secretary of the fair association for it.

R. H. Armbruster, who for several years has furnished the tents for the fair, is on the grounds erecting the various canvasses for next week's session.

Everything New White

White paint has been spilled in profusion and every stick on the grounds has been given a nice clean white bath. The grounds present a most attractive aspect with all the buildings in their spick and span new garb.

The concession stalls under the amphitheater have all been leveled off with gravel floors and are much improved. The "Zone" as they call it in Frisco, will be in the same old place, directly north of the amphitheater and this deluge of delight will be a long, wide avenue of music bally-hoo, merry-go-round, pretty girls, bright displays, pop corn, peanuts, cracker-jack, taffy, noise babble and excitement for the throngs of visitors at the "Pumpkin Show."

Track in Fine Shape

The race track, which is counted as one of the best half mile tracks in the state, has been put in splendid condition. A fine entry list has been secured and visitors at the fair will see some snappy horse racing.

Fear Whiteside County Man Has Case Of Leprosy

Prophetstown Physician Has Appealed To State Board
Of Health

Special to Telegraph.)

Prophetstown, Ill., Sept. 9.—Dr. J. P. Tascher of this city has appealed to the State Board of Health for an expert to examine a patient in Prophetstown, whom he thinks has leprosy. He has received word from Dr. St. Clair Drake, secretary of the board, that Dr. George A. Beller, one of the most capable men of the board will be sent here to investigate.

Dr. Tascher refuses to give the patient's name, disliking to embarrass the sick man in case he is not afflicted with the disease. He states, however, that his patient has more of the symptoms of leprosy and that inasmuch as he has been ailing for the past eight years, an investigation by an expert was deemed advisable.

PLANS ILLUMINATED SIGN POST ON ROAD

COMMISSIONER DYSART HAS A GOOD IDEA FOR BUSY
INTERSECTION.

IN LINE WITH OTHER WORK

Collins Dysart, commissioner of streets, proposes a little improvement at the forks of the Amboy road and the Lincoln Highway when completed will be a valuable aid to travelers and will add to the appearance of the intersection.

Commissioner Dysart's plan is to erect an ornamental light and sign post, built of concrete probably, at the forks of the road. The same light that is on that corner now will be used to illuminate the new improvement, but will be moved over to the center of the fork in the road and guide signs will point out the Lincoln Highway or the Starved Rock and LaSalle road, day and night.

Mr. Dysart has had the bill on file Lincoln Highway just beyond this point, cut down considerably and more of this improvement work will be done. A public hearing is to be held next Tuesday on the building of a cement road over this hill, and when that work is completed a big improvement will be accomplished.

TAKING INVENTORY AT COUNTY HOME

COMMITTEE PREPARING REPORT FOR SUPERVISORS' MEETING
NEXT WEEK.

The alms house committee composed of Supervisors J. M. McCleary of this city, U. G. Dysart of Viola, John Banks of Compton, Frank Young of South Dixon and Charles Ewald of Reynolds townships, met today at the county home to take the annual inventory and prepare their report to the board at the September meeting, to be held next week. They will also make their recommendation for superintendent of the home for the ensuing year. Mr. Wicher has been in charge of the home for a number of years and his work has always received the highest praise from the board and doubtless he will be tendered the office for another year.

RESTAURANT MAN IS ARRESTED

G. L. Robinson Charged With Conducting Gambling House In Store

G. L. Robinson, proprietor of the West First street restaurant, was arrested Wednesday evening on complaint of Chester K'eisee. He is charged with running gambling devices in his place of business which are prohibited by city ordinance. The hearing of the case has been set for Friday at 10 a. m. before Justice A. H. Hanneken.

LIFE SAVERS DEMONSTRATE METHODS OF BREAKING DEATH GRIP OF DROWNING PERSON

In the accompanying illustration are shown members of the American Volunteer Life Saving association demonstrating the methods they use to break the death hold of persons who are drowning and whom they are trying to save. The demonstration was given at the Jamaica Bay Yacht Club and aroused the liveliest interest among the members. Many an expert swimmer has been dragged to his death by the desperate clutch of the person he is trying to save. Professional life savers, however, quickly break these grips, and in the accompanying illustration they show how it is done.

LOOK TO AUTOISTS TO HELP STOP LAW BREAKING BY OTHERS

COMMISSIONER SMITH HAS PLAN FOR ORGANIZATION OF MOTORISTS.

WOULD AID CITY AUTHORITIES

Could Also Materially Assist in Good Roads Work, Booster Club Trips, Etc.

Commissioner George W. Smith came to the Telegraph today with a plan for the betterment of the automobile condition in Dixon. The plan is really co-operation by the citizens to aid the civic authorities in the regulation of traffic, and is the only feasible and sensible way for a city of this size to maintain such regulation.

Commissioner Smith suggests an organization of Dixon automobile owners, under such a name as the Dixon Motor association, or any other name the members may select. The primary reason for the organization would be to aid the police to regulate automobile traffic and every member of the association would be a member of a sort of vigilance committee whose duty it would be to report all offenders of the automobile law. Other benefits would be derived from such a club and considerable work could be done by such a body of men that would be for the general good of the community. It could be a Lincoln Highway and general good roads booster club, could do road marking and could wield influence in the matter of road improvement wherever it is needed, which is almost everywhere. There are great possibilities for such an organization, and with the backing of the city authorities it could accomplish much.

ANOTHER WIFE SEEKS DIVORCE

Mrs. John Donovan Charges Husband With Excessive Drinking.

Another divorce suit was added to the list on the docket to be tried at the September term of the circuit court this morning when Elizabeth M. Donovan, through her attorney, H. A. Brooks, filed her bill asking that she be granted a decree from her husband, John Donovan. She charges him with the excessive use of intoxicants as well as disregarding the vows taken at the time of their marriage August 1, 1910. The case will doubtless be heard during the term of court which opens on September 20th.

HOLD RUSSIAN HALL BOY FOR LADY'S DEATH

NEW YORK POLICE SAY HE HAS CONFERRED TO PARTICIPATING IN CRIME.

GOT $10,000 WORTH OF JEWELS

(Associated Press)

New York, Sept. 9.—Owney Talas, a Russian Finn, a hall boy at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Nichols, aged 60 years, a widow who met death at her home last night at the hands of masked men, has been arrested and has confessed to participating in the crime, according to the police.

The robbers stripped the victim's fingers and ears of jewels valued at $10,000 and left untouched jewels worth between $250,000 and $400,000 in the safe. The other servants in the house have been freed of suspicion. A preliminary examination revealed the probability that Mrs. Nichols died of fright and was not strangled as at first supposed.

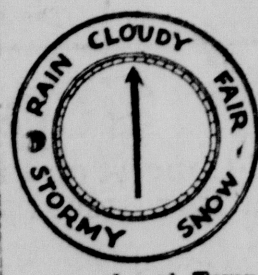

New York, Sept. 9.—Mrs. James E. Nichols, widow of a member of the wholesale grocery firm of Austin, Nichols & Co., and inheritor of $1,000,000, was murdered in her home at 4 East Seventy-ninth street late last night by three masked men who carried revolvers. After the men had entered the house at the point of their guns and had bound and gagged two of Mrs. Nichols' servants the men went into Mrs. Nichols' room.

When she was found by the maid who managed in an hour's time to free herself from her bonds, Mrs. Nichols was dead on the bed in her own room, and had been strangled by means of a table cloth and a dolly. No attempt apparently had been made at robbery.

Victims Of Auto Smash - Up Show Some Improvement

Reports From Miss Howell And Lee Ray Were Encouraging Today

Reports from the physicians caring for Miss Agnes Howell, the young lady who was injured in the automobile wreck Monday evening, are very encouraging. This morning she showed a marked improvement over yesterday, and as yesterday was an improvement over the day before, it is believed there are grounds for the hope that her improvement may continue. This afternoon the report from the sick room was that her condition was "satisfactory and as good as could be expected."

The operation which was performed upon Miss Howell's skull, which is fractured in two places, is said to have been a very delicate and skillful one and she has given signs of improvement since that time. It is stated that she would not be alive now

SELF DEFENSE PLEA ON ARABIC SINKING

GERMANY'S NOTE, GIVEN GERARD, EXPRESSES REGRET AT AMERICANS' LOSS.

PROPOSES HAGUE SETTLE COSTS

(Associated Press)

Washington, Sept. 9.—The German government's note on the sinking of the Arabic was handed to United States Ambassador Gerard Tuesday, and it is being awaited in Washington. It is understood it ascribes the liner's destruction by the submarine to self defense, and expresses regret at the loss of American lives and proposes to refer to The Hague the questions of reparation and compensation.

Berlin, Sept. 9.—(Via London.)—The commander of a German submarine which has returned to its base has reported to the admiralty that he torpedoed the liner Arabic in the belief that the Arabic's action indicated she was about to attack the submarine and that he fired in self defense.

According to the submarine commander's report the submarine was engaged in destroying a freighter when the Arabic was sighted. The submarine was then on the surface.

Says Arabic Swung Round.

The Arabic, the commander declares, swung around and headed toward the freighter as if to attack the submarine. The commander of the undersea craft remained in doubt as to the intentions of the Arabic when the latter changed her course a few points, but still kept headed in a direction that was bringing her nearer to the scene.

CATTLE DISEASE IN WHITESIDE CO. NOW

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE APPEARED ON FARM IN NEWTON TOWNSHIP.

(Special to Telegraph)

Sterling, Sept. 9.—A case of foot and mouth disease was discovered in Newton township, Whiteside county, last night and the township was immediately quarantined by the authorities. Seventeen head of cattle and fourteen hogs on the infected farm will be destroyed tonight. It is believed that waters flowing from farms north of Newton, where the epidemic was prevalent in the spring, caused the fresh outbreak of the scourge.

CORN CROP WAS BADLY HURT BY BIG WIND STORM

CORN IN PATH OF WEDNESDAY'S
GALE WAS BENT FLAT TO GROUND.

MANY TREES BLOWN DOWN

Wires Broken, Buildings Unroofed,
Windows Broken By 60-
Mile Gale.

Thousands of dollars damage was done to crops and property in this vicinity by the gale which swept across Illinois late Wednesday afternoon, reports from the path of the storm indicating that its effect was generally the same in all localities.

The greatest damage was to the corn crop and many farmers estimate that at least half of the cereal has been destroyed. Whole fields of the stalks were laid flat on the ground in many places; while everywhere the wind struck only part of the stalks were blown down.

Wires Blown Down.

Telegraph, telephone and electric light lines suffered exceedingly from the storm, especially in the open country. Practically every toll line east, south and west of Dixon was put out of commission; the Western Union Telegraph company's lines were broken and the high tension lines of the L. N. U. were broken in many places.

The trolley wires of the Sterling, Dixon & Eastern were also broken or torn down in several places and traffic on the line has been hampered today because of this.

Wind Of High Velocity.

The storm traveled with a velocity of from forty to sixty miles an hour, and it is marvelous that more damage was not done to property in the city. It was about 4:30 o'clock when it struck Dixon; Rochelle reports it striking there at 4:50 o'clock and it broke over at Geneva at 5:20.

General Damage.

Trees were blown down in every section of the city, many of them being huge trees which have withstood heavy storms for years. In many instances they were uprooted and turned over. Branches were blown off of other trees, and as a result the streets of the city presented a littered appearance this morning.

Buildings Unroofed.

From many sections of the county come reports of trees felled and buildings unroofed; while numerous chimneys were blown over wherever the wind struck.

Signs Blown Down.

In Dixon many temporary signs were blown off of business houses, while several awnings suffered damage.

Windows Broken.

Several windows in the residence districts of the city were blown out, and glass in doors was broken by their slamming shut.

At the Harry Huffman hardware and implement store on First street a big plate glass window was blown out and a smaller one at the entrance was also broken.

Porch Blown Off.

At the O. T. Gylleck residence, 325 Douglas avenue, the rear porch was blown off and a heavy ice box which was on it was carried several feet into the back yard. Mrs. Gylleck had just gone into the house from the porch when the wind wrecked it.

Narrow Escape.

H. C. Rose, contractor, had a narrow escape from injury when the wind blew down a big tree in front of the Mossholder residence on Peoria avenue, just missing his automobile.

Tree Broke Roof.

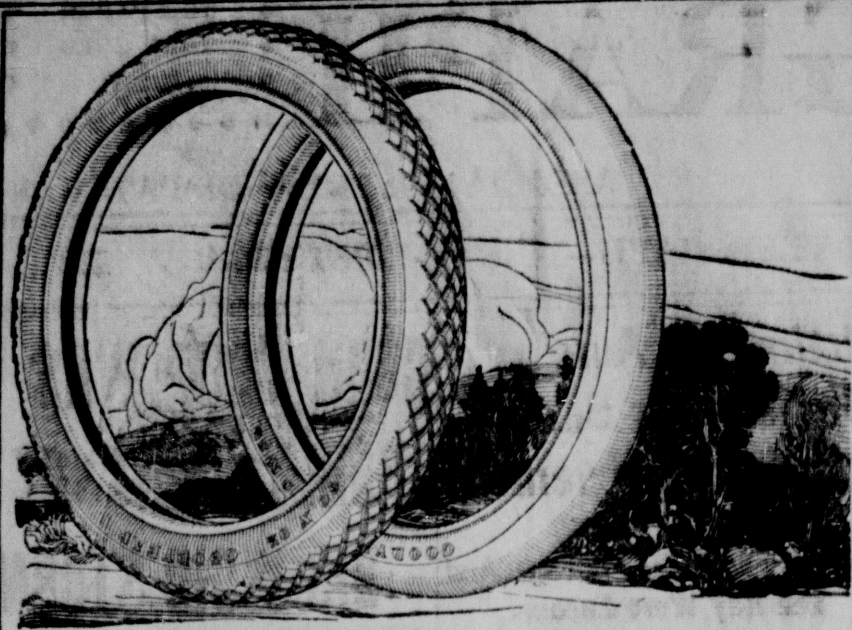

A large tree in the rear of the yard at the home of Mrs. Margaret Powell on Third street was blown down and a limb struck the corner of the roof of the house tearing away part of the cornice.

Trees Blocked Road.

The roadway between this city and Franklin Grove was blocked in several places after the storm by trees that had fallen across the road.

The wind caught a large oak tree standing in the southwest corner of the court house yard and twisted it off about five feet from the ground. The awnings on the west side of the Small-Size Tires Enlarged 20%

Sizes 30x3 1/2 and 30x3

Goodyear tires won top place by giving more than others. For that reason alone these tires for years have outsold any rival.

This year we are giving to users of small tires three more costly extras. Now Goodyear tires in these sizes, more than ever before, excel any like-size tire.

3 More Extras

We have added 20 per cent to the air capacity. Added size, as you know, adds mileage.

We have added 30 per cent more rubber to the side walls—to the part above the rim. That's where constant bending breaks a thin-walled tire.

We have made new molds of a new design which adds endurance, we have found.

Lower Prices

These new extras alone, on this year's output, will cost us $317,000. They will save our users ten times that, perhaps.

Yet this year we made another big price reduction. It was our third in two years, totaling 45 per cent. That's one result of mammoth output—a value no one else can give.

Even in size 30x3, in Goodyear tires, you get a four-ply tire. In our All-Weather tread, you get a double-thick anti-skid. Now you get this extra size and extra strength. More than ever you owe yourself the use of Goodyear tires. No other make compares with them in low average cost per mile. A half-million users have proved that.

MRS. DURAND'S FINE CATTLE ARE DOOMED

Greatest Guernsey Herd in U. S. Develops Hoof Disease.

Waukegan, Ill., Sept. 9.—The $50,000 herd of blooded cattle owned by Mrs. Scott Durand, and kept on her estate about five miles south of Waukegan, and perhaps the finest herd of Guernsey cattle in the world, has the foot and mouth disease, and will be killed.

This was the discovery made by Dr. L. E. Apple, a federal inspector who has been working through Lake county, and lately was assigned to inspect the cattle of Shields township.

The cattle are thoroughbred Guernseys selected by Mrs. Durand, who made a trip to the Isle of Guernsey four years ago to obtain them. Her dairy has been a model for hundreds of similar plants in all sections of the country, many innovations in the way of sanitation and protection being incorporated in the model barns.

One of the features was the installation of a phonograph in the cow barns to be played during the milking time to keep the cattle quiet.

German Reservist Who Said Ship Was Armed Admits Perjury.

New York, Sept. 9.—Gustav Stahl, the German reservist indicated in connection with an affidavit made by him setting forth that he saw four guns mounted on the decks of the Lusitania just before that steamer's ill-fated voyage, pleaded guilty to the charge of perjury before Judge Hough in the United States District court.

He was remanded to the Tombs until today, when sentence is to be imposed.

Gary, Ind., Sept. 9.—Two hundred and fifty dollars reward has been offered by the city council of Gary, Ind., for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Rev. Edmund Kayser, who was killed at his home in Tolleston on the night of Aug. 24.

The ordinance offering the reward passed the council without a dissenting vote. Alderman John Kesserer, who opposed the action at the last meeting of the council, was absent.

Age is Not the Cause of your hair falling out. It is the condition of your scalp.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will destroy the germ which is the cause of this trouble. 50 cents a bottle. C. M. Campbell & Son.

Ty Cobb is Henry Ford's assistant in the job of keeping Detroit in the headlines.

However, he does not make automobiles. He merely wins one now and then. He is a soloist by profession—the highest priced swat soloist in the world. There is no sweeter music to a Detroit citizen than a harsh note from Ty Cobb's bat in the seventh inning with three men on bases and the other side a run or two ahead. Caruso couldn't fill Detroit's ball park once in a life-time, but Cobb has been doing it for ten years.

Cobb is a very young man, not yet old enough to become a senator. He was born in Georgia and spent his youth battling bumble bees with a broomstick. Later, he practiced hitting horseflies with a curtain rod and gradually became so proficient that he could pick up a slim-waisted walking stick and bank two bases out of a life ball most any time. He then joined the Detroit baseball team and began to upset statistics on batting averages.

Cobb has been almost as disastrous to pitchers as that other great baseball character, Charley Horse. He not only bats spit balls, slow balls and serpentine twists with great ease and fluency, but he is distinguished for his restlessness on bases. A flea is phlegmatic beside this eminent young example of southern languor. His most permanent address is half way between first and second bases making faces at the pitcher. He can run faster than a darkey chased by a graveyard and has a way of lying down when approaching second and feeling for the base with his versatile and prehensile feet which is very corrosive on the nerves of the opposing catcher and baseman. Cobb steals twice as many bases as any other man in the business. This is because, like every other Georgian, he is passionately fond of home and begins suffering from nostalgia whenever he gets on first base.

Cobb is a quick tempered young man and breaks into the police reports now and then by messing up a spectator who has called him names. This is considered to be a great fault. However, the baseball going public needs more Cobbs on the diamond. The spectator who throws his good breeding away with his cigar stub when he enters the bleachers needs more strenuous education than can be given him by a million editorials on good sportsmanship.

DEMENTTOWN DOINGS

In response to the inquiries of thousands of anxious readers who, after reading the item referring to mosquitoes and lightning in this column last evening, feared we were slipping our transmission, we hasten to say that the boot was not ours. The inspired proof-corrector grabbed a wrong slug in the brilliancy (?) of the electric lights—if you are a user of electricity you can get that slam, all right—and dropped in that mosquito item, which made it sound just about as sensible as a democrat's explanation of the deficiency in the tariff. Therefore, we make one more attempt to put over that mosquito item.

for we know every reader who has made the acquaintance of the pests this season will paste it in their "Memory Gems" booklet:

Like lightning, mosquitoes never bite twice in the same place. Good reason why, too. They do a helva good job the first time.

A real philosopher will always count on an enemy—but not so often on a friend.

How To Get Rid of a Bad Cough

A Home-Made Remedy that Will Do It Quickly, Cheap and Easily Made

If you have a bad cough or chest cold which refuses to yield to ordinary remedies, get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking a teaspoonful every hour or two. In 24 hours your cough will be conquered or very nearly so. Even whooping cough is greatly relieved in this way. The above mixture makes a full pint of a highly supply of the finest cough medicine money could buy—at a cost of only 54 cents. Easily prepared in 5 minutes. Full directions with Pinex. This Pinex and Sugar Syrup preparation takes right hold of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough in a way that is really remarkable. Also quickly heals the inflamed membranes which accompany a painful cough, and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Excellent for bronchitis, spasmodic croup and winter coughs. Keeps perfectly and tastes good. Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guaiaac, which is so healing to the membrane. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex"—do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Newcomer Reunion
Tri-County Press: Last Thursday afternoon, September 2nd, the pleasant country home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Stahler was the scene of the first Newcomer reunion held in this section. It marked the fiftieth anniversary of the coming of Daniel and Barbara Newcomer to Illinois from the war region in Pennsylvania, and about thirty were present to celebrate the occasion.

The present O. E. Stahler home is the place where Daniel and Barbara Newcomer located upon their arrival here.

At noon a picnic dinner was held on the lawn which it is needless to say was enjoyed, the ideal day adding much to the pleasantness of the affair. It was decided to make the Newcomer reunion an annual event and in the afternoon, the association was organized with D. H. Newcomer of Mt. Morris president and Miss Eva Newcomer, Mt. Morris, secretary. Three letters from cousins, who were unable to be present were also read. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in games and social chat. How Dr. Wilson managed to secrete them at his home last evening after a flying trip by automobile to this city is a tale to be listened to, but he did it, to the eternal gratitude of Mr. and Mrs. Heckman.

LOOK FOR AUTOISTS TO HELP KEEP LAW

plish much. In a city the size of Dixon it is impossible to have a policeman stationed at every point where speeders are liable to break the traffic laws. It would mean a prohibitive expense. An organization of law-abiding men, determined to make Dixon safe from wild, careless drivers, could do as much as an army of policemen if they made up their minds to do it. It would be difficult for any driver to commit a violation of the auto law without being seen by some Dixon automobile owner, and this owner could take the number of the offending car and turn it in to the police, sign a complaint against the driver and give his testimony at the hearing. Such a system would soon put a stop to racing, speeding, cutting corners, running without lights, etc.

If the citizens of Dixon cannot aid the local police in the enforcement of the law, it will be necessary for the city commission to pass even more drastic and stringent ordinances, and the best way for local auto owners to prevent oppressive legislation is for them to band together to aid the officers in their work. It is all for the good and betterment of the city. The city officials are worked up to a high pitch over the many offenses that have been committed against the traffic regulations recently. They say that offenses are being committed daily by Dixon people as well as by strangers, and they propose to stop them short in some way or other. The terrible accident that happened in North Dixon Monday evening is simply an instance of what may happen any minute in any one of a hundred places in the city. Every brick pavement in Dixon is being used as a speed way by careless drivers and there is no prophesying when an accident even more terrible than the last may occur.

DANGER SIGNS ARE BEING PLACED HERE

Commissioner Van Bibber and Officer Duffy were busy today erecting signs reading, "Danger, Go Slow," in a half dozen different places within the city limits where there is extraordinary danger of accident. The signs are printed in large silver and black on a red background and can be read a considerable distance. They should serve as a caution to automobile drivers. COMPULSORY MILITARY TRAINING.

In adopting compulsory military drill for boys in public high schools, Providence has followed Boston in emulating Swiss methods precedent to actual military training. In Switzerland all boys while still at school, where they remain till fifteen or sixteen years old, are required to take gymnastic and body-building exercises but are only "encouraged" to learn how to shoot straight. Not until they are nineteen are they put into real military training with a sixty-five day course for infantry, seventy-five for artillery, and ninety for cavalry, with subsequent "repetition courses" each year up to the age of forty-eight. In certain Massachusetts towns and cities where high school drilling has been tried the effort seems to have suffered from over-exertion—instead of giving them merely the physical foundations, the boys were subjected to more or less technical and advanced instruction in the science and practice of arms. Methods of choosing officers sometimes causes unhealthy rivalries while officers after selection developed undemocratic manners, and the rest on graduating felt that they had specialized too finely to enter the militia as privates. A "setting up" and knowledge of the rudiments of self-care and the manual are perhaps sufficient for schoolboys. In the Swiss system of making promotions by merit marks from the ranks snobbism is repressed. Under such conditions, as a starter toward preparing a citizenry capable of defending itself, the Providence undertaking is soundly helpful.—Exchange.

ARCADIA NOT FOR ALWAYS.

In the midst of war's alarms the agricultural fairs swing in. Across the great water bloody strife, the wasting of the toll results of a century, the turning of all scientific knowledge to the business of destruction. On this side the festive celebrations of the harvest. But, whether we will or no, we must take note of what is transpiring beyond the Atlantic. We must not be fool ourselves into thinking that with Europe and Asia organized upon the militant theory we can go right along living the Arcadian life, without concerning ourselves about making ready for what will surely come if the militant idea wins in the war across the way.

WAR A MACHINE AFFAIR.

War is no longer a combat between men. Battles are fought by machines and a few skilled men to tend them and, after the machines have done their work, the infantry comes forward to clean up the ground, just as a pick-and-shovel gang follows up a steam shovel to level the surface of the excavation made by the latter.

A SOUTHERN PORCH PARTY, AT FAMILY THEATRE ALL THIS WEEK

BROTHERHOOD OF MAN HAS HAD BIG GROWTH

EX-PRESIDENT TAFT SAYS IT IS OUTSTANDING FEATURE OF GENERATION.

ASKS JUSTICE FOR BIG BUSINESS

"We Are All in Same Boat, Prosperity Is Dependent Upon All," He Said.

(Associated Press)

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 9.—Former President W. H. Taft today told the American Bankers' association, in convention here, that practically all the radical reforms attempted in connection with politics, railroads and "big business" had failed of their purpose, causing the nation to halt in its progress, and that there must now be a "retracing to the line of moderation and justice."

In giving an "economic and political summary of the generation just closing," Mr. Taft said that the latest outstanding feature appeared to be the widespread growth of the spirit of the brotherhood of man, despite the fact that the war had shattered the dreams of universal peace.

In his opening remarks Mr. Taft outlined the growth of large combinations in business; their successful adoption to politics, and how the "chase for the dollar" had absorbed all the people until they suddenly realized they were almost in the grasp of a plutocracy. It was then that agitation for reforms swept the country, said he, and public indignation became acute.

"The leviathan of the people cannot be stirred to such action as has been taken and stop short at the line of moderation," said Mr. Taft. "The hostility of legislatures and Congress came to be directed against all successful investment of capital without discrimination. Nothing is so timid at capital, and nothing is so easily able to take care of what it has."

He then said that a deplorable feature of such excess of remedy was that the wage earners suffered most.

"The close and absolute supervision over the management of railroads," said Mr. Taft, "and the restrictions upon the rates charged by them in interstate commerce and in commerce within states, together with the increase in cost of maintenance and of wages through the efforts of labor unions has ground the railroads between the upper and nether millstones. All this is to the detriment of the business of the country, and especially to the comfort and happiness of the wage earners dependent on normal business and normal demand for labor.

"We are all in the same boat. The prosperity of one class is dependent on the prosperity of all. This is no reason why we should not repress injustice and punish abuse of power. But it is a reason why we should not indulge in excess."

Mr. Taft said trades unions had secured much benefit for their members through the political influence they have exercised; that they are here to stay and will remain powerful factors in the progress of the community. He held that the chief ground for criticizing the recent policy of the trades unions is that with the power they have legitimately acquired by combination they are now attempting to place organized labor in a privileged class. He declared that the Clayton act, making legal a secondary boycott, might work great hardship upon employers.

Remains of Prominent Franklin Grove Man Laid To Rest.

The funeral of the late Henry Sunday of Franklin Grove was held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church in that city and was largely attended. NOTED VIOLINIST AT

FAMILY THEATRE

Miss Norma Hopkins, a seventeen-year old miss who has won an enviable reputation as a violinist, will make her appearance at the Family theatre this evening with the all-girl act, "A Southern Porch Party." The Vode Life, a theatrical paper, has the following to say of Miss Hopkins: "Wherever this offering appears Miss Hopkins' mastery of the violin has excited a world of comment and there is little doubt that within the next few years she will be recognized as one of the bright stars on the vaudeville horizon. This attraction will remain at the Family theatre for the balance of the week."

George Hicks returned to Lee Center yesterday after spending Tuesday night at the Hicks cottage at the Assembly grounds. He brought his mother, Mrs. W. W. Hicks, and brother, Henry, to Dixon to take the train for Montana.

Ray Is Better.

Lee Ray, who is also at the hospital with concussion of the brain, has been suffering considerably and is only semi-conscious now, but his condition is said to be slightly improved this afternoon.

Wm. Hermsmeier, driver of the Buick car which figured in the mix-up of machines in North Dixon Monday night, appeared in Dixon late Wednesday afternoon to answer to a warrant for his arrest, issued from the Lee county states attorney's office. He was taken before Police Magistrate W. G. Kent and held under $300 bonds to await further developments. Hermsmeier's attorney, Douglass Pattison of Freeport, accompanied him. The case of Hermsmeier, as well as Cartwright and Wilson, is continued for ten days, to Sept. 18, pending developments in the condition of the injured people, Miss Agnes Howell and Lee Ray, who are at the Dixon hospital. They are charged with speeding at present, but as was stated in last evening's Telegraph, more serious charges, such as manslaughter, may be preferred by States Attorney Harry Edwards in case of the death of any member of the parties to the accident.

Wm. Hermsmeier had his machine and the Cartwright Ford dragged out into the alley back of the Geo. Netiz garage this morning and employed a local photographer to take many photographs of the cars from various angles. When questioned by a reporter he said he realized that all of the details of the accident on Monday night and would tell of them when the time comes.

AMBOY

Amboy, Sept. 8.—Word was received in this city, of the death of Ed Creed, which occurred in Brainard, Minn., last month, after a long illness. He was cared for by Miss Jessie, the sole survivor of the Creed family. Old time residents will remember Mr. Creed who lived on the West Side and was a member of the A. W. West orchestra, which furnished music for the balls in the opera house in the time when Illinois Central railroad employees' dances were numerous and popular.

John Lester of Rochelle and Mr. and Mrs. George Lester of Freeport were here to attend the funeral of Timothy Lester.

John Welsh of Winnipeg is visiting his mother, Mrs. B. W. Welsh of this city.

Miss Anna Woods who has been ill for some time, does not improve as her friends would wish to see her.

The fire department responded to a call Monday to the John Murray house, occupied by the Whitely family, on West Main street. The fire was caused by lard boiling over on the stove, but the damage was slight.

Mrs. Zoph of Dixon is visiting her sister, Mrs. Martha Krehl of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Green of Davenport, Ia., spent the past week at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Remsburg.

ACTION OF CZAR HITS PEACE PLAN

London says that twenty persons were killed and 86 were injured in a raid last night by Zeppelins.

For General Attack.

Sofia, Bulgaria, dispatches say that the allies are concentrating large forces, including heavy artillery, for a general attack on the Dardanelles.

Zeppelins Near London

Zeppelins flew over the eastern counties of England and the London district. The Pall Mall Gazette of London described the raid as "Londoners' first glimpse of the war at close quarters" thus indicating that the air craft approached the heart of the city more closely than on previous occasions.

Over Heart of London

Berlin says the Zeppelins dropped bombs on docks and other establishments in London and vicinity Tuesday and Wednesday nights, and returned safely.

From cablegrams received from its London staff the Chicago Daily News assumes that the Zeppelin raid was over the heart of London.

Take French Trenches

One and one-quarter miles of French positions in Argonne have been captured by the Germans, Berlin states.

Petrograd, Sept. 9.—The decision of Emperor Nicholas to take chief command of the Russian forces is regarded here as the best possible reply to recent talk of peace proposals and as showing clearly Russia's determination to bring victory to herself and her allies.

The Novoe Vremya announces the formation of a new majority in the duma which comprises the liberal and progressive elements, replacing the conservative majority.

The newspaper editorially comments favorably on the formation of the new majority and says:

"A union on a single political program, responding to the requirements of the day, of parties differing in political creeds—this is a fact of great importance whose consequences cannot but be reflected immediately in the entire policy of the empire."

Blow to Peace Hopes.

The Novoe Vremya, commenting on the change in supreme command of the army and navy, continues:

"Our insolent foe has now received a worthy answer to his projects. The Russian emperor has placed himself at the head of the military forces, and hopes of the Germans for peace are turned to dust and ashes."

The Novoe Vremya has retained through the last fifteen years a reputation as a weather vane. Its support of the new duma therefore is regarded as highly significant.

Grand Duke Nicholas has been transferred to the Caucasus by Emperor Nicholas.

The emperor took the action on assuming command of the military and naval forces of Russia.

In transferring the grand duke, he appointed him viceroy of the Caucasus and commander in chief of the army in the southern front.

Transfer Stirrs Nation.

The transfer was made in connection with a general reorganization of such importance that it has stirred the nation deeply.

The grand duke replaces the famous viceroy of the Caucasus, Count Von Vorontzoff-Dashkoff.

Take Another Russ Town.

Berlin, Sept. 9.—(Via London).—German forces that have been engaged in battle with the Russians in the district north of the Dielovetz forest have captured the city of Wolkowsky, it was announced by German army headquarters.

SELF DEFENSE IS PLEA ON ARABIC

Again Changes Course.

The captain of the submarine reports that he continued to observe the actions of the liner until he saw the Arabic again change her course and head directly for the spot where the submarine lay, as if the Arabic had sighted the undersea boat. Then the commander of the submarine, believing his craft was in danger, he declared, submerged her and fired a torpedo.

Germany Disavows Hesperian Sinking New York, Sept. 9.—Count Bernstorff, the German ambassador, received a wireless dispatch from Berlin from the German foreign office, in which the statement is made that it appears improbable that the Hesperian was torpedoed and that it was much more likely the boat ran into a mine.

court house were caught at the same time and ripped from their fastenings.

Tore Down Stacks.

Several farmers in this vicinity who had large stacks of straw piled up in their barnyards found that after the storm had passed the straw had been scattered broadcast.

On Rickard Farm.

At the E. H. Rickard farm in Palmyra township near the Gap the storm tore things up generally. The large stave silo, the head of the windmill, part of a new double corn crib, together with numerous trees are a mass of wreckage. The damage is partially covered by insurance.

The silo was erected a few years ago and was well traced and was believed capable of standing very great strain. One end of a double corn crib recently finished, was taken down by the wind. The large double door on the barn was taken off its hinges and carried some distance. The large wheel on the steel windmill tower was wrenched off and badly wrecked. A number of large trees on the premises were twisted off as though they were saplings.

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 9.—Wire communication with Macomb, Bushnell, Elwood, Monmouth and other towns was interrupted late in the afternoon, when a violent wind storm of cyclonic proportions struck this section. Telephone and telegraph companies were unable to get in communication with any of these cities. Reports of possible damage were unavailable. A violent thunderstorm, accompanied by high winds, broke over this city.

Galesburg, Ill., Sept. 9.—During a destructive storm in the afternoon a silo was blown over on John Pendergast on his farm north of here, killing him instantly.

Ottawa, Ill., Sept. 9.—A building was unroofed and the sides blown in, and wires were leveled in a terrific windstorm here.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

Brush this through faded, lifeless locks and they become dark, glossy, youthful.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of “Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy,” which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

ROCHELLE MENTIONED IN COLLIERS WEEKLY

WRITER OF “BY MOTOR TO THE FAIR” TELLS OF STAYING THERE.

Rochelle, Sept. 8.—Rochelle is given complimentary mention in this week's Collier's in an article, “By Motor to the Fair,” from the pen of Emily Post. Miss Post's party was forced to lay over two days in Rochelle by the recent heavy rains. She explains the visit as “Mud! We have struck it. It looks pretty much as though our motor trip to San Francisco were going to end in Rochelle, Ill.” After passing DeKalb the only “highway” attributes left were the painted red, white and blue telephone poles along the way. The road itself disappeared into a track of black mud.”

Then follows a description of seemingly impassable roads until, “A short distance further, however, we turned a corner and saw the brick pavement of a town only a few yards ahead. No matter how squalid the town or accommodations, we meant to stay there until the roads dried. Then we turned a corner and found ourselves in the cleanest, sweetest, newest little town imaginable. Its grills of streets were all wide and paved with brick, and its houses, mostly white, were each set in a garden of fresh clipped green.

In front of a garage we saw a man with a blue coat and brass buttons, and “Fire Chief” on them. They are directed to a hotel as follows: “No good hotel! Well, I just guess there is a good hotel. The Collier Inn is just across the street and around the corner. It's a fine hotel.”

“I don't know how we had missed it. It was a fair-sized yellow brick building on a corner, a rather typical small-town hotel. I went in rather expecting dingy darkness. The lobby looked like the office in a Maine summer resort. I asked (not for a moment expecting to get it) for rooms with baths. The proprietor said “Certainly” and showed me three new little rooms, each with a little bathroom attached. I turned to my companions grinning like a Cheshire cat. It seemed to us as though we had found a veritable Ritz.

“Twenty-four hours in a town like this and we feel as though we knew it and the people intimately.”

The fire chief, no other personage than the amiable Dave Garrison, is featured in realistic tales of experiences with mud roads. His picture causes Miss Post to consider shipping the big grey solid-wheeled car, to Frisco by freight. This makes a background for a touch of the spirit of the west. Dave and the garage men are brought in for:

A year's foot comfort guaranteed or money refunded.

“We know now what is the matter. They think we are quitters. They are so filled with a sense of shame for us that we are beginning to feel it, too. In spite of our intention of going only as far as things were comfortable, we feel that we are pretty sandless sports.

“Why, that car ought to go through anything” is all any of them can think of saying to us.

To finish what you have begun—to see it through at whatever cost seems to be the spirit here. It is the spirit of the West. It is probably the spirit that doubles and even trebles the growth of these towns in a few years. And, whatever it is, it seems to have affected us, for we have countermanded our order for the freight car, and although the mud is very little better we have put our chains on and are going to start.

Enthusiasm was no name for it. The town turned out to see us off, the fire chief, who had spurred us on, drove off his engine in all its resplendent brass and scarlet. The ban of our disgraceful leanings toward freight cars was lifted, and they saw us off on our muddy way rejoicing.”

Silas Hatten went to Chicago Tuesday on business.

SCHOFIELD HOTEL AND COTTAGES

This popular resort is almost as well known as the Dells. It has been entertaining summer guests for forty years, and has lately been enlarged in capacity by the erection of a large modern building, fully equipped with every modern convenience, and affording dining room, assembly parlors, etc. This is an addition to the popular cottage plan, and adds to the previous popular attractions of the older system. The hotel and cottages are in extensive grounds, delightfully shaded by large oaks, and being away from the river is most especially desirable for families with children. The location is in the edge of Kilbourn on a pretty resident street, but a pleasant walk from the river and depot, and with regular free bus and carriage service to these points. The large hotel is not surpassed in this locality in point of modern style and comfort. The annex cottages and grounds make it altogether everything that anybody would desire. The test of efficiency is in the table. This hotel is especially noted for its excellent table board. Fresh butter, eggs, vegetables and fruit are supplied daily from the farm, and its preparation by a professional chef is perfect; chicken dinners twice a week.

Sinnissippi Farm's Experiment in Dairying

FROM GEO. E. MARTIN FROM BREEDER'S GAZETTE.

PANORAMIC VIEW OF FARM BUILDINGS.

Much of the northern Illinois territory is given over to dairying. Large concerns engaged in the preservation and distribution of dairy products have established milk condensing factories and creameries at convenient centers, affording ready markets for milk and its products, and this has been a potent stimulus to the adoption of milk production by the farmers in that section.

Sinnissippi Farm, owned by Frank O. Lowden, is near Oregon, Ill. Much of this tract is operated on the tenant

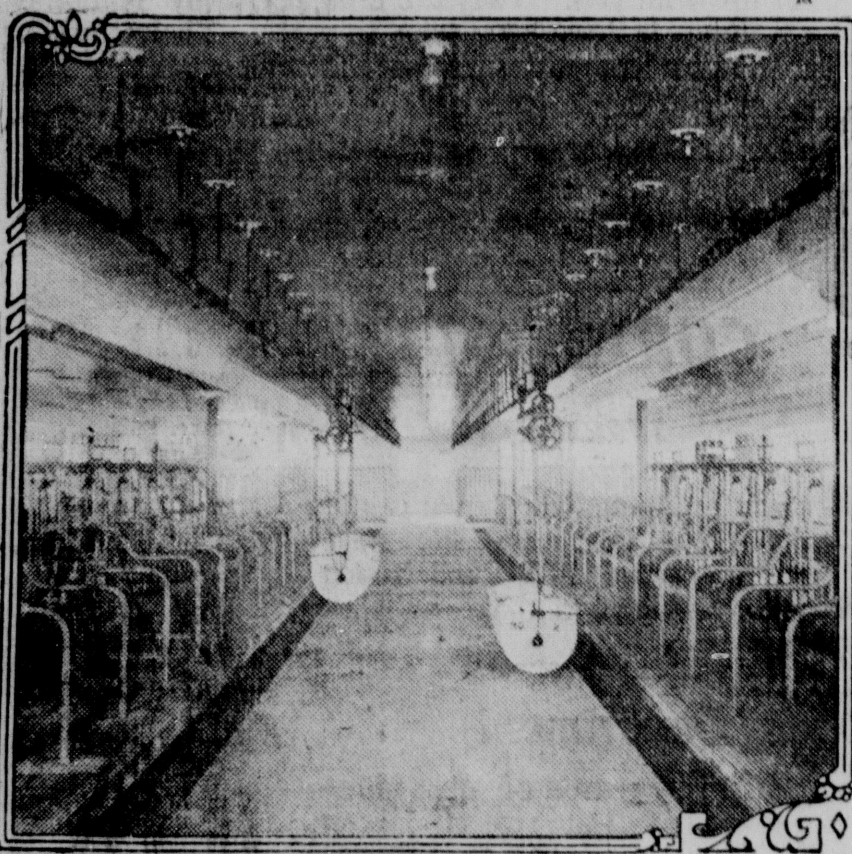

4-foot wall of the same material, made with a 2-inch dead-air space inside. The stalls are of cork brick. Everything is arranged to simplify the standard operations. It is estimated that one man can take care of as many cattle as two men could formerly. The space above the main floor is used for storage of feed.

The barn is well ventilated and thoroughly sanitary. No attempt has been made to fashion a show plant; it is a practical barn for average farm purposes where dairying is followed. In the work of converting the buildings and to prove to his own satisfaction why a thing is thus or so. He realizes that haphazard methods should have no more place in the management of a farm than in any other enterprise which is to be successfully conducted and made to return a profit in keeping with the investment involved. Accordingly when the cows for the dairy were selected, he was not specially concerned with the cows that would give the greatest quantity of milk but rather with the type of cow which would return the greatest profit for the amount of feed consumed and the labor employed. His foreman was instructed to keep an account with each cow and in assembling the herd to make selections of Holsteins, Jerseys, Guernseys, and dual-purpose Shorthorns with a view to giving all a fair trial. In this way it could be demonstrated which breed was the most profitable for the average dairy farm in Illinois. In this scheme the value of the calves for dairy or beef purposes will be considered.

Important Bearing On Dairy Practice.
Such an experiment will not be lacking in interest to Illinois farmers who are endeavoring to arrive at a stable basis of farm operations which will prove to be a soil conservator and at the same time produce a profit commensurate with the high values to which the farm lands in the state have attained. Many thinking farmers find unsolved, at least to their own satisfaction the problem of the best system of farming, and if the experiment which Mr. Lowden has undertaken on his Sinnissippi farm shall result in the formulation of a profitable plan in the conduct of that farm it will not be lacking in interest to average farmers in Illinois. The work is being conducted in a practical way, such as would be the case on the average farm. Whether the experiment results in proving that the highly productive special dairy cow is the kind to tie to, or the cow of smaller milk production of a dual type whose male calf will make a marketable beef steer at an early age, remains to be seen. It is the problem that Mr. Lowden is determined to solve by means of this Sinnissippi Farm test. The eventuation of the experiment, made by a man whose interest in Illinois agriculture is practical and intense, will have an important bearing upon dairy practice in this state.

plan. On account of the establishment at Oregon of a large milk condensing plant, and since the system of maintaining live stock in order to retain soil fertility is a rule of farming insisted on by Mr. Lowden, a number of farmers have engaged in dairying on Sinnissippi lands, and a practical dairy is in operation on the farm.

Plan Adaptable to Average Farm.

Dairy farming is an established system that has been proved profitable. But for an experiment that has been inaugurated by Mr. Lowden and is being worked out there is nothing of special interest in the fact that at Sinnissippi a practical farm dairy is in operation. But the plan is adaptable to the average farm. Mr. Lowden desires to evolve a method which will apply to the ordinary farm, can be adopted by the farmer of average means, and will return a profit in keeping with the investment. Accordingly in arranging the buildings on the farm for this purpose, the old horse and cattle barn was remodeled. The main barn is 72 by 120 feet, with a capacity for 100 cows, in addition to 6 maternity stalls and 3 bull stalls. The floors are of concrete, with a dairymen. A thorough system of the cost of production has been worked out, in which records are being kept with each cow in the herd, the object being to eliminate the non-profit producers. Frank O. Lowden is a man who likes to go to the bottom of things and to prove to his own satisfaction why a thing is thus or so. He realizes that haphazard methods should have no more place in the management of a farm than in any other enterprise which is to be successfully conducted and made to return a profit in keeping with the investment involved. Accordingly when the cows for the dairy were selected, he was not specially concerned with the cows that would give the greatest quantity of milk but rather with the type of cow which would return the greatest profit for the amount of feed consumed and the labor employed. His foreman was instructed to keep an account with each cow and in assembling the herd to make selections of Holsteins, Jerseys, Guernseys, and dual-purpose Shorthorns with a view to giving all a fair trial. In this way it could be demonstrated which breed was the most profitable for the average dairy farm in Illinois. In this scheme the value of the calves for dairy or beef purposes will be considered.

ZEPPELINS KILL TEN IN NEW BRITISH RAID

Three Women and Five Children Among Victims.

London, Sept. 9.—The second air raid on England within a matter of twenty-four hours occurred at midnight last night. Hostile air craft passed over the eastern counties which they visited also Tuesday night and added to this area an attack on London, dropping incendiary and explosive bombs. Early this morning the only details given out were that a few casualties had been reported and that the fires which had been started were under control.

London, Sept. 9.—Ten persons were killed and forty-three wounded in the German air raid on the east coast of England. Three persons are missing and supposed to be dead.

"Last night three Zeppelins dropped bombs on the eastern counties," said the official statement. "Two men three women and five children were killed. Four men, eleven women and five children were seriously injured. Nine men, five women and nine children were slightly injured."

"A man and two women are missing and are believed to be buried under the debris."
A dispatch from Amsterdam says four Zeppelins are believed to have participated in the raid. Outlying Dutch garrisons fired on a Zeppelin proceeding in a southwesterly direction, fearing the dirigible would violate Dutch neutrality. Three other Zeppelins were sighted near Rotterdam, ten miles southeast of Rotterdam.

FRENCH RETAKE TRENCHES

Germans Gain Advanced Positions but Are Driven Back.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The Germans launched a new and vigorous offensive in the western part of the Argonne in an attempt to break through the French front. The night communiqué admits that the Teutons, who used asphyxiating gas bombs in their attack, gained a foothold in some part of the French advanced trenches. Violent counter attacks, however, finally forced them to give up their attempt.
Artillery action continues at many places on the western front and frequent air raids are reported.

DROPS WREATH TO PEGOUD

Adversary of Dead Aviator Honors Memory From Sky.

Belfort, France, Sept. 9.—A German aeroplane, flying at a great height, appeared over Chavannes, an Alsatian village on the old frontier. The aviator dropped a wreath which bore the inscription: "To Pegoud, who died like a hero, from his adversary."
The noted French aviator, Adolphe Pegoud, while making a reconnaissance recently near Petite Croix, was killed by a German aviator, whom he had attacked.

Million for Michigan University.
New York, Sept. 9.—A campaign to raise $1,000,000 so that the University of Michigan may have a central hall devoted to social purposes was launched at a dinner in the city club of a committee of 100. The committee raised $74,000 before the end of the dinner.

HELP THE OLD FOLKS

A HELPING HAND EXTENDED TO MANY OLD PEOPLE IN DIXON

The infirmities of age are many. Most old people have a bad back. The kidneys are often weak. Or worn out with years of work. Backache means days of misery. Urinary troubles, night of unrest. Doan's Kidney Pills have helped to make life easier for many. They are doing so for old and young.

Dixon people are learning this. Read the following local endorsement.

Mrs. E. Bott, 811 College Ave., Dixon, says: "My advanced age probably has much to do with my kidneys becoming disordered. I had kidney trouble a long time before I knew it. The chief symptom was backache and severe pains across my kidneys. It was often very hard for me to get up or down. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my family with such good results that I got some at Leake Bros. Co.'s Drug store. One box rid me of the backache and toned up my system." (Statement given April 15th, 1909.)

OVER FIVE YEARS LATER, Mrs. Bott said: "Whenever I have any trouble from my back or kidneys, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and get prompt relief."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Bott had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

DUMBA WILL GO, CAPITAL'S BELIEF

President Takes Envoy's Offending Letter to Lansing.

Visit of Executive to State Department Has Few Precedents.

be awaiting further information before deciding whether to hold Dumba person non grata.

President Wilson's action in calling on the secretary of state was almost unprecedented, President McKinley being the only executive known to have made such a move. It was learned later Mr. Wilson carried the copy of the Dumba letter cabled from London by Ambassador Page.

"The state is not trembling," said the president on leaving Mr. Lansing's office. "I just brought over some papers of routine nature that ordinarily I would have sent. There is nothing new."

Asked specifically about the Dumba case, Mr. Wilson replied: "The secretary is handling that."

Labor Chief Thwarts Dumba.
Meantime Ambassador Dumba had called on Secretary Wilson of the department of labor to seek his aid in getting employment for Austrian subjects who might leave their places in the munitions plants as the results of publication of the Austrian decree threatening punishment.

The labor department was understood later to have vetoed Dumba's suggestion.

"I'm Scapegoat," Says Archibald.
Amsterdam, Sept. 9.—James F. J. Archibald declared he knew nothing of the contents of the documents taken from him at Falmouth.

"If these dispatches contained anything improper," he said, "Dumba made a scapegoat of me."

Archibald sailed for New York later aboard the steamship Rotterdam.

DUNNE PERILS STATE FAIR CATTLE EXHIBIT

Governor Threatens to Warn
Breeder of Foot Disease.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 9.—Difference of opinion between Governor Dunne and the state board of agriculture regarding the display of cattle at the state fair which opens in Springfield Sept. 17 threatens to develop into an open break, because of the foot and mouth disease in the state.

Governor Dunne considers issuing a proclamation warning live stock men against sending cattle to the state fair, in spite of the fact that the state board of agriculture had given assurances that there was no cause for alarm. The board is holding a special meeting in Kankakee, at the home of President L. C. Small.

Governor Dunne announces that he will take definite action today if facts warrant it. He believes that exhibition of cattle should be prohibited as a precautionary measure following the discovery of more cases of the foot and mouth disease in Lake county among prize cattle.

The state board declares that the state fair will be held as planned, all cattle being subjected to a rigid examination before being entered. The county fair at Aurora may be canceled because of the disease.
